

Fifth Grade Weekly Spiral LA homework LARS #1 (Language Arts Review Skills)

Name _____

Spiraling Skills	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Spelling:	Write the correctly spelled contraction for the 2 words. can not _____	will not _____	she will _____	would have _____
Sentence types	Circle the correct type of sentence, and put punctuation at the end. Please go clean your room Statement (declarative) Command (imperative) Question (interrogative) Exclamation (exclamatory)	Do you have any candy Statement (declarative) Command (imperative) Question (interrogative) Exclamation (exclamatory)	My favorite is Snickers Statement (declarative) Command (imperative) Question (interrogative) Exclamation (exclamatory)	Our house is on fire Statement (declarative) Command (imperative) Question (interrogative) Exclamation (exclamatory)
Proper Nouns	Proper nouns are names and should always be capitalized. Add proper nouns to these sentences. My favorite restaurant is _____.	Last year my teacher was _____.	Have you ever been to _____?	I watched _____ on TV over the summer.
Adjectives	Adjectives describe nouns. Add awesome adjectives to these sentences. The _____, _____ cat was purring.	Did you see that _____, _____ baby?	A _____, _____ book was at the library.	I _____ saw a _____ snake yesterday!
Affixes	The prefix re means to do something again. Fill in words that begin with the prefix re in order for these sentences to make sense. This handwriting is sloppy, so please _____ it.	You broke my toy, so _____ please _____ it.	The tower of blocks fell. Can you _____ it?	You did not make a good grade on the test. Please _____ the book and take the test on Monday.