

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday
Q U O T A T I O N S	Quotation marks are used to show dialogue. Put quotation marks around what is being said. Since the dialogue is last, you must use a comma to separate what is being said from what is not. You must add quotation marks and punctuate the sentences. Cindy questioned What time is the show	I have been working all day Lucas complained	Please come with me to the beach Jamal begged	You did a great job cleaning your room Naomi exclaimed
F L I A G N U G R U A A T I G E V E	Metaphors are imaginative ways to describe something by comparing that thing to something else. For example, if I wanted to say that Dan is tall, I could say that Dan is a giant. Finish each of these metaphors so that they make sense: She is kind. She is _____.	He is slow. He is _____.	Bob is short. Bob is _____.	Lilly is beautiful. She is _____.
S P E L L I N G	In each box in this row, circle the misspelled word. Then, spell it correctly. again business mowntain because -----	anywhere experiment diffrent against -----	great pepole around column -----	right friend grateful meny -----
E D I T I N G	Highlight the letters of ANY words that should be capitalized. can grandma mary take me to burger king on tuesday?	“where did you go?” asked aunt sally.	mary, mollie and i are all in 5th grade at buford academy.	dr. smith was in a treacherous car accident on friday.
R O O T  W O R D S	Root words are the most basic part of a word. They do not include prefixes or suffixes. For example: quietly-the root word is quiet Write each root word. uneventful _____	mistreated _____	incorrectly _____	rebuilding _____